WOODLAND, July 30th, 1875. jy30-6m

The State Returns.

There were some very grave mistakes made by the clerks in the Secretary of State's office last week, which were rectified since. The vote for Governor stands: Irwin, 61,509; Phelps, 31,322, and Bidwell, 29,752. These are the official figures. Irwin's majority over Phelps is 30,187; over Bidwell, 31,757. Phelps' majority over Bidwell, 1,570. Lovett, the temperance candidate, received 376 votes, which, if added to Bidwell's vote, would still leave Phelps ahead by 1,194. Irwin's majority over Bidwell and Phelps, 345.

For Lieutenant-Governor — Johnson's majority over Pacheco was 29,119; over Cavis, 32,392; Pacheco over Cavis, 7,273.

Beck's majority over both opponents, 2,375.

Mandeville polled 57,064, Crane 28,535, Green 37,401; Mandeville's majority over Green, 19,663; over Crane, 28,529.

Treasurer—Estudillo, 59,190; Beckman, 34,222; F. Baehr, 29,042. Estudillo's majority over Beckman, 24,968, over Baehr, 30,148:

Attorney-General—Hamilton, 60,915, Sawyer, R. 34,002; Van Clief, 27,769. Hamilton's majority over Sawyer, 26,913; over Van Clief, 33,146; over both, 856.

Surveyor-General — Minis, 59,667; Gardner, 35,098; Twitchell, 28,816. Minis' majority over Gardner, 24,579; over Twitchell, 30,861.

Clerk of the Supreme Court—Wolf, 59,722; Taggart, 34,642; Morrill, 28,589. Wolf's majority over Taggart, 25,081; over Morrill, 31,154. These figures are not official.

Irwin polled more votes than any other man on the ticket, Jo. Hamilton being next. Irwin's plurality over Hamilton is 494, besides having had three competitors, while Hamilton had but two.

There is something very remarkable about results of this election. For the last four years California has received a large influx of immigration, most of which she still retains. The number of votes cast four years ago for Governor was 120,096; this year, for the same office, it stood 122,959, or 2,863 votes more than there were polled four years ago. It is also a remarkable fact that the Democratic vote has not increased materially since that time, admitting that all the votes cast for the Democratic ticket were cast by Democrats. Haight's vote was 57,514 against 61,509 for Irwin.

Hamilton's vote for Attorney-General was 58,184, against 60,915 this year. Taking the average vote this year and comparing it with the average four years ago, there is an increase of about 2,000 votes, and we can safely assert that more than that number of Republicans either voted the Democratic ticket, or stayed at home. The proof of this assertion lies in the fact that the Independent and Republican vote for Governor combined is only 61,074 while Booth's vote in 1871 was 62,582, and Pacheco's vote 62,505, or nearly fifteen hundred more than the Republican and Independent vote this year. —Sac. Bee.

THE PHŒNIX.—The most interesting of all fabulous creatures is the Phœnix. It was exceedingly beautiful, as large as an eagle, with a plumage that shone like gold around its neck, a purple body, and a tail of blue and rose-colored feathers. It had a cock's comb under its neck, and a magnificent crest. This splendid-looking bird was supposed to live five hundred years, and then burn itself, to rise from the ashes young, strong, and more beautiful than ever. An old writer gives a long account of this new birth of the Phœnix, which always took place at Heliopolis, the City of the Sun. A priest made a fire of spices on the altar, and the bird flew in the flames and was burned with the spices. A small worm would then be found in the ashes on the altar, and on the second day after it appeared it would be transformed into a bird, and in one day after that, or the third day after the burning, the Phœnix would be itself again and would go off in fine spirits, and in new clothes that were warranted to last for five hundred years.—St. Nicholas.

EXTRAVAGANCE OF THE DAY.—Some interesting facts concerning the extravagance of rich Americans are given by a writer who takes New York as his field of research. He states that there are ten thousand New York ladies whose costumes, when in full dress, cost at least $1,000 each. Fifteen years ago the same number of fashionable ladies would have appeared adorned quite as attractive at an average expense of $250. Ten thousand children under ten years of age are elaborately arrayed at an expense of from $100 to $150 each, while the children of wealthy citizens fifteen years ago were simply, but appropriately attired at an expense of $20 to $25. And it is painful to reflect that in consequence of this lavish expenditure upon a class that never earned a dollar, there are other tens of thousands without employment and suffering for fuel, food and raiment.

BEATS THE WORLD.—The most remarkable exhibition of the recuperative power of finance ever known has been manifested in San Francisco within the past month. The largest bank in the State failed for upwards of two millions of dollars; but, though the failure caused some depression of business, it did not create a panic. And now comes the wonderful part. Every effort had been made by certain parties to represent the affairs of the bank as ruined beyond all hopes of redemption. To-day the bank re-opened, and announced its ability to cash all demands. The rush commenced; the bank remained open an hour later than usual on Saturdays, and closed its doors with three-quarters of a million of dollars more in its vaults than they contained when it opened. Wonderful, most wonderful!—Sacramento Herald.

CALIFORNIA WILD MUSTARD.—The Los Angeles Express says: It may not be generally known that the wild mustard, which grows so plentifully in Los Angeles county, is shipped to Europe by the millions of pounds. Board alone shipped three millions of pounds in a single year. It is purchased here at from two and a half to four and a half cents per pound. A very delicat eweet oil is pressed from it, which is utterly without an acrid taste and which is returned to this country and sold for olive oil. The cake which remains after the oil is extracted is ground up into the ordinary mustard of commerce.

BABIES AND DIRT.—A writer in the Metropolitan says: We once asked an old Winnebago squaw how it was that she cured her sick family by covering them every day with fresh earth, leaving only a breathing spot for their noses, and she said: "Earth our mother. Earth make she, and earth take good care to make she papooses strong; squaw mother make she papooses sick; earth-mother make she papooses well again. She can't tell white squaw any more." Now, this poor Indian woman was wise "according to her lights." Without knowing why, she saw that the earth was a friend to her children, and therefore gave them to its healing embrace. If the mother be fortunate enough to live in the country she has the cure for many of her children's ills quite at hand. Encourage baby to play in the fresh earth, preparing it properly for enjoyment and cure, with as careful an eye to the comfort of the little thing as you would if it were to take any other sort of a bath. If it has no old dresses, make it a suit of cheap print, tie upon its head a light hat that will protect its eyes from discomfort, and give it freedom to delve in the warm, soft earth, where the sunshine can comfort and invigorate it. If it is a city child, and circumstances forbid a trip to the country for the sake of the weak convalescent, have a sand-heap made on the warm side of your yard. Instinct will teach it to dig, and digging hardens the muscles and gives strength to the bones, while from the heart of the earth rises a subtle and strong power of healing that we can neither explain nor understand for ourselves, though we have both seen and felt its potency.

A FAMOUS FEMALE SWIMMER.—During the last voyage of the "Royal Dane," from Copenhagen to Newcastle-on-Tyne, a serious accident occurred to Miss Fry, the stewardess. The sea was rough on Sunday, and as she was going up some steps to the deck the boat took a lurch and Miss Fry fell into the sea. The accident caused great commotion on board, and it was expected that she would be drowned before assistance could reach her, the vessel being under full steam at the time. A boat was got out from the steamer as soon as it could be stopped, and was fully manned and pulled back to where Miss Fry was last seen. She was found comfortably floating on her back when the boat reached her, and not much the worse for the immersion. She stated that after she was thrown into the water she pulled off her boots and swam for some time. She then waited quietly until the boat picked her up. Miss Fry belongs to a famous Tynemouth family of swimmers, and she is one of the best female swimmers on the northeast coast of England.—Liverpool Advertiser.

TEXT BOOKS.—As an example of the executive ability of Dr. Fitzgerald, and his thorough sympathy with true reform, we call attention to these facts. When Dr. Fitzgerald went into office the cost of books, maps, charts, and educational apparatus to each pupil, for a term of four years' tuition, was $265. Dr. Fitzgerald eliminated all the trashy books, reduced the number in several series and effected such a reform in all the several classes of study, that when his term expired the cost to the pupil for the four years named, was only $47. Each parent in this State who sends his child to any high grade public school, saves during the four years of study, the sum of $219, which he would otherwise have to expend, but for Dr. Fitzgerald's effort. Further, when he went into office, thirteen geographies were in use; he reduced the number to three. And so on, in many other respects he effected reforms, the most of which his most bitter enemies cannot deny to him. It is due to him that the people manifest their gratitude for his signal services by electing him to the office which he so ably administered.—Sonoma Democrat.

THE "MOXA."—The dreadful experience through which Clara Morris has gone in Paris in the treatment of a lesion of the spinal cord excites interest in the terrible "Moxa," as the treatment with white-hot iron is called. It is a Japanese invention, and has been used in Japan as a counter-irritant for many centuries. The word itself means "burning grass," and is thus used because the Japanese custom is to place the finer wooly parts of the young leaves of worm-wood on the skin, in the form of small cones, and set them on fire by means of a burning-glass. They burn slowly and leave a scar or blister, but the operation is not very painful; it cannot for a moment be compared with the agony occasioned by the scoring of the quivering flesh with iron heated to whiteness, which is what we call "moxa." Its use in Japan, where it is looked upon as a cure for a great number of diseases, such as pleurisy, asthma, rheumatism, and even indigestion, is almost universal, nearly every person, especially among the lower classes, being scarred with "moxa" spots.

PENNYROYAL AND POTASH.—If mosquitoes and other bloodsuckers infest our sleeping rooms at night, we unkork a bottle of the oil of pennyroyal, and these animals leave in great haste, nor will they return so long as the air in the room is loaded with the fumes of that aromatic herb. If rats enter the cellar, a little powdered potash thrown in their holes or mixed with meal and scattered in their runways, never fails to drive them away. Cayenne pepper will keep the buttry and storeroom free from ants and cockroaches. If a mouse makes an entrance into any part of your dwellings, saturate a rag with cayenne, in solution, and stuff it into the hole, which can be repaired with either wood or mortar. No rat or mouse will eat that rag for the purpose of opening communication with a depot of supplies.—Scientific American.

ONE Scotchman complained to another that he had got a ringing in his head. "Do ye ken the reason o' that?" asked the worthy crony. "No!" "I'll tell ye; it'a because it's empty." "And ha'e ye never a ringing in your head?" quoth the other. "No, never." "And do ye ken the reason? Because it's cracked."

THE statue of Carl August which has just been unveiled at Weimar, stands in the center of the Fuersten Platz, a large square. On the occasion of the unveiling the Emperor and many representatives of the universities at Jena were present.

ITS RESPONSIBILITIES.—The Democracy, in a couple of months, will take possession of nearly all the offices in the State of California. It will have a large majority in both houses of the Legislature. Most of the county governments likewise will be directed by members of the same party. In short, the Democracy has now as full and complete swing in California as it had before the war. There is no obstacle anywhere to the carrying out of whatever policy it may resolve upon. There is not enough of any other political organization in power anywhere with which it can divide the blame. If there is loose or wasteful management of the funds, if there is any disregard for the rights or welfare of the community, if there is any failure of statesmanship, the successful party in the campaign will have to bear the whole of the censure. There can in the present state of things be none of that dexterous dodging by which responsibility can be evaded. There are not three nearly balanced parties struggling for the mastery in the councils of the State. There will be but one party after the first Monday in December. If its power, influence and strength are therefore great, so will be its accountability. If wrongs are committed against the State, they will be clearly and incontrovertibly Democratic wrongs. If there are laches in the administration they will be laches for which the Democracy will alone be at fault.—Bulletin.

WONDERFULL PEOPLE.—One hundred and sixteen years old! Mr. Lemar Griffin, of Lodi, Ohio, is said to have been born in 1759. He has voted for every President except Washington. He had objections to the father of his country. What these objections were he now refuses to say. He has but one arm, but still reads the newspapers; dislikes to be bothered by visitors, but consents, like a sensible old gentleman, to talk with newspaper men. They speak of putting him to death by bringing him down to the Centennial Exhibition, probably with an idea that he has lived long enough. In the same county with Mr. Griffin resides Captain L. M. Bates and his lady. Their aggregate hight is fourteen feet and eight inches. They are known as the Kentucky giant and giantess, and formerly traveled as such with Mr. Barnum. They have retired from public life, and have a splendid farm proportioned to their size. So that county, with the oldest old gentleman and the tallest couple in the country, may well be proud, especially as the former, by not voting for Washington when he had a chance, won endless renown.

CHARACTER IS CAPITAL.—What you can effect depends on what you are. You put yourself into all that you do. If that self be small, and lean, and mean, your entire life-work is paltry; your works have no force, your influence has no weight. If that self be true and high, pure and kind, vigorous and forcible, your strokes are blows, your notes staccatos, your work massive, your influence cogent; you can do what you will. Whatever your position, you are a power, you are felt as a kingly spirit; you are as one having authority. Too many think of character chiefly in its relation to the life beyond the grave. I certainly would not have less thought of it with reference to that unknown future, on the margin of which some of us undoubtedly are at this moment standing. But I do wish that more consideration were bestowed upon its earthly uses. I would have young men as they start in life regard capital as a character, much surer to yield full returns than any other capital, unaffected by panics and failures, fruitful when all other investments lie dormant, having as certain promise in the present as in that which is to come.

RIDING ON THE LOCOMOTIVE AT HIGH SPEED.—The sensation of this ride were novel and exhilarating. A gentleman of the party who ventured to ride on the engine says:

"Looking ahead, the steel rails, glittering in the bright sunshine, seemed like threads of burnished silver, and the huge engine, with its dazzling brass mountings and fiery furnace, appeared to glide over these threads like the continued chasings of lightning, as sometimes seen flashing along the telegraph wires in a terrible thunder-storm. Distance dissolves like the views of the kaleidescope. A village, a group of people, the hosts of flagmen, appear and disappear with confusing rapidity, the eyes become strained and dilated, the breath short and spasmodic, the entire nervous system becomes sympathetic with the vibrations of the locomotive, every instinct is aroused, and the excitement becomes almost overwhelming, until the shriek of the whistle is heard, and a realizing sense is felt of a slackening of speed."

WHAT IS THE SUN.—Prof. Rudolph, in a lengthy paper on the sun says: A molten or white-hot mass, 856,000 miles in diameter, equaling in bulk 1,260,000 worlds like our own, having a surrounding ocean of gas on fire, 50,000 miles deep, tongues of flame darting upward more than 50,000 miles, volcanic force that hurl into the solar atmosphere luminous matter to the height of one hundred and sixty miles; drawing to itself all the worlds belonging to our family of planets, and holding them all in their proper places; attracting with such superior force the millions of solid and stray masses that are wandering in the fathomless abyss that they rush hopelessly toward him, and fall into his fiery embrace. And thus he continues his sublime and restless march through his mighty orbit, having a period of more than 18,000,000 years.

WORTH REMEMBERING.—The Scientific American says: If mosquitoes or other blood-suckers infest our sleeping rooms at night, we uncork a bottle of the oil of pennyroyal, and these animals leave in great haste, nor will they return so long as the air in the room is loaded with the fumes of that aromatic herb. If rats enter the cellar a little powdered potash, thrown in their holes or mixed with meal and scattered in their runways, never fails to drive them away. Cayenne pepper will keep the buttery and storerooms free from ants and cockroaches. If a mouse makes an entrance into any part of your dwellings, saturate a rag with cayenne in solution, and stuff it into the hole, which can be repaired with either wood or mortar. No mouse or rat will eat that rag for the purpose of opening communication with a depot of supplies.

ELECTION OCTOBER 20, 1875.

FOR SUPT. OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

DR. O. P. FITZGERALD.....Of Sonoma

FOR JUDGE OF SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT,

LEWIS RAMAGE.....Of Sacramento

FOR COUNTY JUDGE,

E. R. BUSH.....Of Woodland

Putah Canyon Road.

Yolo county has expended some $12,000 recently for the construction of a wagon road through Putah Cañon to the Napa boundary. The road has been built and the necessary bridges over the arroyas. The road and works have been accepted by our authorities and paid for. It was supposed to be and intended to be by the people and the public a "free" road, but it seems that the Sees, father and sons, held an old franchise through the cañon for a toll road, and they are now at their post collecting from sixty to one hundred dollars per day off of passengers, travelers and teamsters passing over the road made by the county and paid for by the people of the county. This is simply outrageous. The Supervisors should have looked into this matter before making the road. They say the franchise is void and invalid because the Sees never made a good road themselves, as required by law; but no steps have been taken by suit at the instance of the Attorney General of the State to procure a decree and judgment vacating and annulling the Sees' franchise. The Supervisors have directed the District Attorney to commence suit against the Sees to condemn the route. They did that at the last meeting of the Board, having previously sent commissioners to treat with the Sees, offering them $1,500, which they rejected, but ask, so we are informed, $20,000. So it seems our Board recognize the Sees' right of franchise. Why they should have gone on and made a toll road for the Sees is a mystery to us. Whether a franchise can be condemned for public road purposes, we do not pretend to know; perhaps our Supervisors know all about it; we are not lawyer enough to decide the point. We believe the road bed was to be constructed eighteen feet wide, on permanent ground and in a substantial manner throughout under the contract. We hope it is so constructed, and will not wash away—in numerous places with the first freshet, and thereby entail additional expense upon the county for repairs. There is a screw loose in this affair somewhere, and we are exercised and extremely anxious to find out how and where it is. Perhaps the Supervisors will explain. The people have a right to know just the right of the matter, and will not be appeased till they do know, and are satisfied who is to blame.

C. P. SPRAGUE, Esq., Straight Republican candidate for County Judge, addressed a fair audience of our citizens on Wednesday last. He was particularly severe upon Judge Johnson's political record, and of course gave Mr. Bush a slight rub. The speaker desired to be elected and would thank the citizens of the county for their votes if they thought he was the best man. When Mr. Sprague had concluded, Mr. Bush was loudly called for. He deprecated anything like a political canvass, said he had practised law ten years; was now about thirty years of age—in the prime of life—hoped to be elected to the office of County Judge.

MR. CATLIN'S HEALTH.—In our issue of September 17th we published an article in regard to the health of Judge Ramage, clearing that gentleman from the charge of inability to perform the duties of District Judge, for which position he has been renominated, and we believe will be reelected. In the article referred to the impression was conveyed that Mr. Catlin's health was poor, but we have since learned that Mr. Catlin enjoys uninterrupted good health, having been ill but once in thirty-five years. We make this correction with pleasure.

THE WEATHER.—The rainy season will be welcomed with gratitude by all in the Sacramento Valley, where warm weather and drouth are the order from May to October or November. During the past week a light north wind has prevailed and at midday it has been uncomfortably warm. The nights and mornings however are cool and pleasent. We long to have the dust laid again and the air purified by rain. It will surely come in due time.

NEW PATENTS.—Through dispatches to Dewey & Co., Patent Agents, S. F., we receive the following advance list of U. S. Patents, granted to Pacific Coast inventors, viz: E. Groat, Napa, Cal., churn; A. W. Lockhart, Sacramento, Cal., feeder for threshing machines; J. H. Mertz, Paso Robels, Cal., tire upsetting macine; R. C. Ball, Oakland, Cal., wash stand and water closet combined.

ACCIDENT.—Bennie Dennis was thrown from his horse last Monday at the camp ground and had an arm broken just above the elbow. The break was set and he is now doing well.

State Superintendent of Schools.

On the 20th instant—less than two weeks from this time—the voters of California will have to choose, by ballot, between Ezra S. Carr, Republican candidate, and O. P. Fitzgerald, Democratic candidate, which shall be our next State Superintendent of Schools. In regard to the former, there are very grave doubts as to his competency to perform the duties of Superintendent, and graver ones still as to his general fitness for that exalted position. The very fact that he was removed by the Regents of the State University from the Professorship of Agriculture, for incompetency, will, as it should, weigh heavily against him in his candidacy for School Superintendent. Among the Regents of the University who favored Mr. Carr's removal were Govs. Booth and Haight, and none will doubt their entire competency to judge in such matters. The people would not know what to expect from such a man as Mr. Carr, who is comparatively unknown to the people of the State. The education of the masses is a matter of too great importance to be experimented with; and especially should the voter be careful not to vote for one who was dismissed for incompetency from the State University, thus proving that he is not fit for State Superintendent. In Rev. O. P. Fitzgerald the Democracy of the State present a candidate well known as possessing all the qualifications for this important office. He has been tried and found to fill the bill exactly, giving the most entire satisfaction to all parties. Under his administration the school system of the State was revised and improved; the text books were overhauled and simplified; the expense of furnishing a scholar with books for four years' schooling was cut down by him from $266 when he went into office to $47—saving to each scholar desiring a full course of instruction in the public schools $219 in four years. Mr. Fitzgerald's scholarly attainments are of the highest order, and his genial, gentlemanly manners have given him a warm place in the hearts and affections of the people. As President of the Santa Rosa College he acquitted himself with signal ability, retiring after a protracted term with honors and laurels showered thickly upon him. His former administration as State Superintendent was in every respect a success. To him more than to any other person is due the present efficiency and economy of our public schools in California. If there is anyone thing that all are alike interested in more than another it is in the standing of our public schools, on which the education of the masses depends. Then let us elect O. P. Fitzgerald as our next State Superintendent. The educational interests of the State will then be properly cared for and the rising generation will be educated and enlightened as they ought to be.

Letter from San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30, 1875.

With mineral wealth unrivalled, a wondrously fertile soil, and a pleasant climate, California only needs to exercise patience to become the most prosperous State in the Union. Unfortunately, however, this seems the very virtue to which the leading citizens show the greatest aversion. To acquire riches expeditiously forms the creed of every true Californian, and as this can only be accomplished by mining speculation, bankers, merchants and the rest of the commercial community gamble in shares instead of contenting themselves with the profits of their respective businesses.

The above is an extract on California from an English paper. I take it for the double purpose of pointing out the importance to which our State has arrived in the eyes of Europe, and also to mark with a foreign, but true index, one of the sins that most easily beset us. Gambling in stocks is a mania so prevalent in San Francisco that it has apparently worked itself into the position of second nature. The minister of the gospel reverently holds Ophir until such a time as he sees a chance to make something. The lawyer forsakes the courts and loudly calls on the street for "Justice." The school master even forsakes his imperial position and wildly exhibits his "Chollar" to the passers-by. The physician exchanges coin for "Bullion." The dentist throws off his old "Yellow Jacket" and goes off in another "Savage" investment. Everybody, men and women, oft times children, rush into the vortex. Now a few dollars are made, soon a hundred are lost, all tending in the same inevitable direction—into the pockets of the rascally manipulators. One feature in this affair is often a matter of astonishment and comment. A man is widely known in legitimate business circles for his unbending integrity of character. He may be President of a bank or head of a mercantile house, money seems to tend his way as a piece of steel toward the magnet. Put that man on California street and in one short season he will earn the name of "the biggest rascal of them all," and not always without reason. There must be an air of brimstone about the business, arising out of the smoking sulphurets, that clogs the moral faculties. No more conspicuous example can be cited than the Bank of California. Deep down to the very heart's core was an unquenchable thirst for speculation. Mines were buoyed up or thrown down by the golden wand of the bank wizard. No tempting opportunity was allowed to pass unimproved until the bank ring became a recognized power, feared by many, hated by all. We are in no danger of a repetition of the fearful upheaval occasioned by the bursting of the South Sea bubble, for the simple reason that people deliberately drop their dollars daily into the money boxes of the mining kings, desperately hoping for fabulous returns, but apparently satisfied in case of defeat at having received value in the chance of becoming a millionaire. This is a sad state of affairs, and yet it is a thing that cannot well be remedied. Gold is our staple. Our mines must be worked, and if the people would drop a reasonable portion of their savings into legitimate enterprises without thought of speculation, in its popular sense, there would be less suffering and a more equably diffused currency.

I see that the epizootic has again spread itself westward, but in a milder form. Some months ago the warning note came, and our heavier stock dealers made their arrangements. The disease is, fortunately, of a mild type, and will hardly give serious cause for apprehension. The symptoms are about the same as in the former visit, a watery discharge from the nose, swelling of the throat glands, and a short, hacking cough. Perfect quiet, with a warm, light diet of mash is recommended as the best prescription.

Our palace hotel may at last be called an accomplished fact. To-day some two dozen families move into their new homes in advance of the formal opening; the arrangement being made to avoid the rush and bustle consequent on the public opening on or about the 10th instant.

The papers have already given notice of the generous offer of Mr. Sharon, placing a full suite of rooms, coachman and private attendants at the disposal of Mrs. Ralston. Dame Rumor (the old jade) building on this offer, it may be, is busy discussing the probabilities of a match between the wealthy Senator, who recently buried his wife, with the newly widowed lady. I presume the gossips deem it only just that the party interested take the Senator's rheums with his rooms. Well, we shall see what we shall see.

WITH FOUR COMPETITORS.

SACRAMENTO, (Cal.), Sept. 14, '75.

This is to certify that the MATHUSHEK PIANOS we are using, and purchased of MR. COOPER, give good satisfaction, standing in tune and wearing remarkably well, and we are well pleased with them. We think they are good and honestly made, and deserve especial notice.

HERMON PERRY,

Prin. Sacramento Seminary.

ST. JOSEPH CONVENT, SISTERS OF MERCY, Sacramento.

We are using quite a number of the MATHUSHEK PIANOS, and consider them very superior instruments. They give very great satisfaction, and we wish that all our pianos were of the same make. We have tried the principal makers, and consider the Mathushek Piano superior for fullness of tone and durability.

SISTERS OF MERCY.

[A CARD.]

This is to certify that I have sold large numbers of the MATHUSHEK PIANOS for over four years, and not one has ever failed. They keep in tune and wear better than all others, and exceed the expectations of purchasers, which has led to increase the demand for them. For information, call, and do not be led by interested parties to purchase certain Pianos you would soon after desire to change for Mathushek. They took the ONLY MEDAL at the State Fair, with four competitors. I have no idea of giving up the agency, as reported by interested parties. Hundreds have been sold, and I have numerous testimonials concerning their superiority, which I will show you with pleasure; many have been published heretofore. Call and see them.

JOHN F. COOPER.

Cabinet Organs of the best makers, and also some new cheap Pianos, from $300 up; a lot of second-hand Pianos. Pianos sold on installments, if desired. Pianos to Rent. Write or call on JOHN F. COOPER, corner Sixth and I streets Sacramento. se24

State Meeting Items.

[From the Daily State Meeting Reporter.]

AN IMMENSE THRONG of people assembled at the Camp Ground on Sunday. The tents are all crowded, and it is thought others will have to be erected. The seats in the Arbor were all occupied during the 11 o'clock services, and numbers were compelled to take seats in front of the tents. Marked attention was paid to the sermon delivered by Professor B. H. Smith, of Hesperian College. All agreed that it was a masterly effort. The evening service was also largely attended, but not so large as at 11 o'clock. Mr. Monroe, the officiating minister, was very eloquent and earnest in his appeals to the sinner. Several have made confession, and it is thought much good will be done. The Superintendent of the free table informed us that over one thousand people ate dinner at 2 o'clock. It is estimated that over two thousand people were present during the day.

IF those who stand aloof and scoff at religious exercises, and especially camp meeting exercises, will stop one moment and think—will look back and try to estimate the immense good the profession and practice of the Christian Religion has done to the world; if they will look at the high moral character of a large majority of those who profess to be Christians; if they will compare this grand and noble system for the redemption of the world, with the narrow and selfish institutions of man's invention, we think their scoffs will be changed to blushes of shame. Even though an unbeliever yourself, do not sneer at that which gives happiness and comfort to so many.

WE HEAR some complaint against the Chinaman who plays the fiddle of one string till two o'clock every morning. Some, who have no musical taste, go so far as to say the thing is becoming monotonous. For their information we will state that he is engaged in edifying his celestial brethren with the airs of an opera, written in the time of Confucius, which will take him exactly three years to complete at the rate he plays now. As he has been playing three weeks they may expect to suffer two years and forty-nine weeks to come, as we hear he is engaged for the whole play.

SUNDAY, in Woodland, was exceedingly dull. Everyone who could availed himself of the opportunity to visit the Grounds. The streets were almost deserted by human beings, leaving the dogs and Chinamen undisputed sway. By the way we never counted the dogs Woodland supports, but Sam Ruland estimates their number at eleven thousand eight hundred and fifty three. He says he may have mistaken one dog, as he missed the one resonant voice during the barking match in front of his dwelling last night.

THE Israelites of Woodland will celebrate the Day of Atonement on Saturday, October 9th. This is their most prominent holiday in the year, and no business will be transacted by them on that day. At sunset on Friday the stores will be closed, and remain so until Saturday evening. The following places of business will suspend during that day: The White House, Levy & Haines, A. Klerski and Gosliner & Co. Parties desiring to purchase goods should call a day or two previous.

IT WILL do a generous man's soul good, and prove to the sinners that there are Christians around, just to stand and see them dish up the nicely cooked provender at the free table prepared by the Brethren for those who attend the State Meeting. The bill of fare would do honor to a first-class hotel. Bro. J. K. Smith says if we only had another Bullock we could feed a thousand more. Jeems says if he has luck he will have it, if he has to start after it in the morning.

THE Coroner, on Thursday, held an inquest on the body of an unknown man who died suddenly at the Tackney House Wednesday night. Several witnesses testified, but nothing conclusive, either as to his identity or cause of death. A post mortem was held by Drs. Mehring and Pierson, who decided that he must have come to his death by a heavy blow on the right side of his head and face. There is some mystery about the affair which will perhaps be cleared up in time.

THE Woodland Library is an institution not near so well patronized as it deserves. The present Librarian, Mrs. L. F. Craft, is at her post, ready to greet with a smile and a word of welcome any one who may desire to pass an evening in the Library rooms. We hope soon to see it the fashion amongst the young men and women of Woodland to make the library a place of resort.

WHAT a grand thing for men and women to assemble together and worship God in the open air. No confining walls, no uneasy pews, no poisonous gases to breathe. The blue sky above, the glorious sunshine, the exquisite biendings of light and shade, all tend to soften the heart of man and turn his thoughts upward. It is a grand idea—to meet and worship God in the open air.

THE people of Woodland have been subjected to four assessments this year, and they are beginning to growl about it. Why could not some way be invented, or some law passed by which one assessment might do for the whole year. It looks ridiculous to see one assessor follow upon the heels of another so that before one tax is paid another assessment is levied.

THE TAX LEVY.—The Supervisors met on Monday last and made the levy of taxation for the present fiscal year. The State levy is 60½ cents on each $100.—The County rate as made by the Board was placed at 99½ cents, thereby making the total rate $1.60 on each $100. This is the same rate as last year, and very low compared with some of our neighboring counties.

A CLERGYMAN being applied to less than a year after his appointment to put a stove in the church, asked how long his predecessor had been there; and when answered, "about twelve years," he said: "Well, you never had a fire in the church during his time?" "No, sir," replied the applicant, "but we had fire in the pulpit then."

THE FREE TABLE is a good feature of the State Meeting, and shows the liberality and enterprise of the people of the County to good advantage. Not only members of the church, but many others have contributed very liberally to the support of the meeting, and deserve praise for such action.

THE bus and cab drivers have a lively time soliciting patronage to their several lines. They all seem to be busy carrying visitors to and from the grounds. We advise them all to avoid reckless driving, and especially racing. Boys, do not endanger the lives of your passengers.

WILLIAM MCCLAIN, on his way to the camp ground on Saturday with a load of baggage, partially upset and was thrown to the ground, a full-sized Saratoga trunk alighting within a few inches of him. Bill says that as a baggage master he considers himself a success.

G. D. FISKE, Esq., lately appointed P. M. for Woodland, took charge of the Postoffice Friday, October 1st. He is renovating and making some needed improvements in the arrangement of the boxes. Mr. Walker will act as Deputy for a time.

FAIRFAX CAMP-MEETING.—The annual conference and camp meeting of the Seventh-Day Adventists was held this year at Fairfax, near San Rafael, Marin County, Sept. 23d to 30th. The meeting was well attended. There were ninety tents or booths on the ground, and from 500 to 600 campers. Probably the largest attendance was about 1,000. There were discourses by six different preachers. The most complete order prevailed, and no drinking or smoking was allowed. Thirty persons were baptized. The following conference officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Elder J. N. Loughborough; Treasurer, W. C. White; Secretary, Wm. Saunders; Conference Committee, J. N. Loughborough, Wesley Diggins, T. M. Chapman. Following was about the daily programme: At 5 A. M., bell for rising; at 5:30, prayer meeting in large tent (80 by 100 feet); 7, breakfast; 8, family prayer meeting in all the tents; 9, general social meeting in large tent; 11, preaching; 1 P. M., dinner; 2, preaching; 5, social or conference meeting; 7, preaching; 8:45, bell for retiring; 9, all lights in the tents extinguished and no talking allowed till 5 next morning. The camp ground is in a lovely little valley near the North Pacific Coast Railroad, surrounded by hills covered with handsome evergreens. The tents were scattered here and there among a thick growth of young redwoods, laurel, madrone, chestnut and other timber. Churches were represented from all parts of the State. About a dozen persons attended from Woodland.

THE indiscriminate manner in which the jostling crowd take their places, and the irregular manner in which the meals are partaken of at the free table, are susceptible of severe criticism. There are those who seem to consider themselves privileged characters, who take liberties, make remarks at the table, and act in a manner totally unbecoming well bred persons. For instance, we see men every day who claim to be gentlemen, and assume a supercilious superiority over those not so stylish in dress and appearance, rushing around to find a place or to secure some article of food, reaching over the shoulders of ladies, or rudely pushing them aside. Then ladies are frequently brought in contact with characters totally unfit to be in their presence. The managers of the table deserve great credit for the manner in which they have discharged their duties, but they could do much better by the adoption of a different rule. Let that rule be that the ladies occupy one side of each table, say the left, facing east, and the gentlemen the other. Let the rule be imperative, and we guarantee much better order and less complaint from well mannered persons.

WHEN we returned from the grounds, Sunday evening, we found our "devil" lying on the floor in a comatose state. By emptying a case of advertising type over his inanimate form, and forcing a cupful of concentrated lye down his throat we succeeded in resuscitating him. After he had fully recovered we inquired the cause of his illness. He was very reluctant to tell, but finally agreed to do so if we would promise to say nothing about it. This was done, of course. "Well," said he, "ye see I've been in love with a pull-back for well, dog-goned nigh a year, I reckon, 'nd I always thought she was sweeter'n beet sugar, pulverized. She was lovelier to my eyes than a "fat take," 'nd I never dremp' but what I'd die a loving her. But when I goes 'round to the free table to dinner, to-day, who should I see on 'tother side of the table but Sary, jest a shovelin' in great gobs of beans and crout, and—I—" here we saw he was going to have another spell, so we soothed hissensitive soul for a few moments with a column rule, and set him to work on a "fat take."

THE different styles of dress displayed at the Grounds Sunday last received many comments and criticisms. Looking at it from a fashion standpoint, the crowd were well dressed; but, goodness, gracious! What vagaries fashion indulges in. The ladies and maidens from the bucholic regions were neatly, simply and tastefully dressed, except where they attempted to imitate the city styles, in which of course they utterly failed. Then there was an attempt on the part of some to blend simplicity with style; but, alas, good bye both to style and simplicity. Next come the out and outers: Pull-backs, gay; pull-backs, sombre; pull-backs in every conceivable shade and degree of pull-backedness. The prettiest, and the best dressed girl on the ground wore a pure white dress, with no ornament, save a bow of ribbon at her throat, and a wealth of rich, brown, wavy hair—woman's crowning glory—pushed back from her forehead, and tied with a shoe-string.

WEDNESDAY afternoon, at the hour set for baptizing, a woman, who, by her manner and general deportment has caused considerable comment on the grounds, sprinkled the straw at the north end of the east tier of booths with kerosene, and then set fire to the straw. The danger of a general conflagration was imminent, but luckily the fire was extinguished before doing much damage. We understand the woman has been sent from the grounds. She ought to be arrested and punished severely.

JAMES MCHENRY has changed the time of his line of stages to Capay, and will in future make only tri-weekly trips, but extends his route as far as D. C. Rumsey's, at the head of the valley. This will be a great convenience to those who wish to visit the California or Knoxville Quicksilver mines, as the new grade to the first mentioned mine will soon be completed. He leaves Woodland Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays of each week, returning on alternate days. Fare, $8.00.

ANY one will be more than repaid by visiting the culinary department for the free table. The immense amount of material to be disposed of by the cooks makes it appear almost impossible that they should get it prepared in good time. Those gents, however, are up to their business, and serve the viands on time and in good style.

HI. SIMMONS & Co. have purchased Ab. Brownell's saloon on Main Street, and will continue the business on a first class basis. The ever genial and popular caterers, Del. Simmons and W. H. Wilcox, will preside at the bar. They intend to make it first class in every respect.

OWING to ill health Mr. George Lewald contemplates selling out his entire stock of merchandise at cost. All who know him are aware that when he says cost he means it. His store is on Main street, opposite the P. O. Give him a call by all means.

WE have seen him. We have looked upon him. We have viewed that noble form and looked into the sparkling eyes of the man who acknowledges that he cannot edit a paper. This morning we looked in a mirror.

PEOPLE began to assemble at the Camp Ground Saturday in great numbers, so that by night a vast number had assembled. It is estimated that over seven hundred people are permanently located at the grounds.

THE TOWN TAX, for Town purposes, and to buy a fire engine for Woodland, went delinquent October 1st. Let those who have not settled look out, or they may lose their property at tax sale.

THE regular train was delayed two hours Saturday morning, on account of an accident to the bridge at Sacramento, thereby causing temporary inconvenience to those waiting for the mail.

WE learn that a sneak thief entered the residence of J. P. Bullock Friday night, while the family were absent, and stole a small satchel together with a few trinkets of minor value.

THE entire front of Washington Hall is receiving a coat of paint. This will not only give the building an attractive appearance, but will be a protection to it during winter rains.

THE saddest thing in life is the spectacle afforded by a young person who has burned all her hair off her forehead with a hot slate pencil and cannot afford to buy a row of curls.

MARTI AND SWAIN are running two fine carriages to and from the Camp Ground. They are safe drivers, and accommodating to all. Give them a good share of patronage.

Brother G. R. Hand made encouraging reports from Los Angeles county. The Brethren there have organized an annual meeting for Southern California. Their first meeting closed September 25th, with twenty-four additions.

On motion of J. N. Pendegast the question of continuance of State meetings and other matters concerning such meetings, was made the special order for Tuesday at 9 o'clock A.M.

TUESDAY. 9 o'clock A. M.

4:30 O'CLOCK P. M.

Convention was called to order by the President.

Prayer by G. R. Hand.

The Resolution relative to the question of free tables at the State Meeting was discussed at length. J. D. Lawson offered a substitute, allowing the brethren at the place where the meeting should be held to decide the table question for that year, which was discussed and lost.

The original motion was then referred to a committee composed of J. N. Pendegast, A. C. Hawkins and J. P. McCorkle, with instructions to report Wednesday at 9 o'clock A. M.

The Convention then adjourned till that hour.

Upon vote being taken the first proposition was adopted.

Matter of Assessor's maps to be discussed October 11th, to which date board adjourned.

NEW TOWN.—Our friend James Black, of Prairie, showed us the other day a platt of a new town situated on his ranch on the line of the Woodland and Red Bluff railroad. The Company have agreed to locate the depot for Prairie at that point, and Mr. Black feels confident that quite a flourishing town will spring up. We hope he will be successful in the enterprise as a partial compensation for the right of way—the road cutting up his ranch (which is a good one) very badly. It is a very healthy locality. The town is laid out in four blocks, sixteen lots to the block, 30 by 120 feet.

CORRECTION.—In an article in our last issue giving the profits of eighty acres of land belonging to Mr. R. B. Blowers, some of the points were not correctly stated. Mr. Blowers states the probable sales for this year at $7,000 or upwards. The expenses for labor, subsistence, etc., for the year are given as at least $4,000. This is certainly a good enough showing for an eighty-acre farm. The land is first-class, but there are thousands of acres just as good within the county.

Letter from Winters.

WINTERS, YOLO COUNTY, CAL., September 30, 1875.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—What is your idea of Winters; anyhow? We commenced here in June, and now we have over one hundred houses in this town and numerous others in process of construction, and still others in contemplation. We have here the elementary department of a live city. We dispense all kinds of refreshments, solid and liquid, from a wind-mill to a gin-mill out of which issueth chain-lightning with several prongs; yea, even forked lightning. We stand it; yes, even seem to thrive upon it; but we can't say how it would agree with the stomach of the uninitiated. We have Democrats and warehouses; Republicans and dry goods stores; Independents and "poker" sharps, a "faro bank," a "monte bank," a logging game, and several "hogging" games if not more, and an average of seventeen drunks per day, and as many more per night.

The Methodist campmeeting is in full blast, and every evening the town goes up to the grounds. The only drawback to a full attendance during the day is the lack of liquid spiritual freedom on the grounds, but at night the average inhabitant can take his telescope along and make astronomical observations during the services, which are highly edifying and consoling, and have an astonishing tendency to cause the observer to agree most emphatically with the minister.

The cars are taking away about fifty tons of wheat daily on an average, and come back loaded down with lumber. We have two lumber yards here now, with large stocks on hand. The farmers are large buyers, thousands of feet being taken away daily.

The Buryessa road is now about completed, and every other day fifteen or twenty six and eight-mule teams come in from that section loaded with grain. I have been informed that it will yet take six weeks or two months to get their crops to the railroad at this place.

We had a man "rolled" while drunk here last night.

Hardly a night passes but we hear of a petty theft of some kind.

The town is supplied with excellent water by digging wells from thirty to forty feet deep.

The S. M. Church is rapidly approaching completion; also the Parker Hotel. Everybody seems to be doing well, and are in very good humor with everybody in consequence.

Plans are on exhibition for a splendid new school house, and bids are in order. More anon. PETE.

IN PREPARATION. — Arrangements are being made for a musical and dramatic entertainment to take place in Woodland on the 5th of November. It will be good without doubt.

J. H. EATON the other day presented the hospital patients with a lot of oysters, canned blackberries, sardines, blackberry jelly, etc.

"STATE MEETING REPORTER."—This is the name of a neat little daily paper published in Woodland during the continuance of the State Meeting and Convention of the Christian Church, October 1st to 10th, by John Pendegast. For an inexperienced hand John does remarkably well. We make numerous extracts on our local page, which show the character of the paper. It is a praiseworthy enterprise and ought to pay.

AUCTION STORE.—We call attention to the new advertisement of the San Francisco Auction Store of Gosliner & Co. This house buys mostly at first hands in large lots, at the lowest prices, and sells at correspondingly low rates, as all will be satisfied who price their goods.

NEW DRESS.—The Yolo Mail appears this week in a new dress, and looks very clean and neat. The proprietors are adopting the style of type used on the DEMOCRAT as fast as they can. We are glad to see our neighbors prosper.

THOSE who desire to purchase a desirable house and lot or any kind of household furniture, are refered to the auctioneer's card in this paper.

WILD GEESE are making their annual trip southward as usual just previous to the commencement of the rainy season.

AMPUTATION.—A man named Haley had one of his legs amputated at Knight's Landing on Tuesday last.

LEVY & HAINES.—Do not fail to read the new ad. of this firm. They are closing out their goods cheap.

MATT. D. CARR will be a candidate for Enrolling Clerk in the next Assembly.

BORN.

Near West Grafton, October 2d, 1875, to the wife of Hayward white, a son.

Near Woodland, Oct. 1st, 1875, to the wife of Charles Leman, a son.

In Cottonwood, Oct. 4th, 1875, to the wife of Abraham Haines, a daughter.

MARRIED.

At the residence of Judge Hutton, in Cacheville, Oct. 6th, by Rev. R. W. Williamson, James L. Pace and Miss Angie Porter.

DIED.

In San Francisco, Oct. 6th, 1875, Georgie, wife of John W. Parramore, brother of Dr. Parramore of this place.

In Solano County, near Main Prairie, Oct. 2d, Mrs. Rosina Frese, aged 40 years, 4 months and 6 days, after long and patient suffering.

The Great Anti-Periodic.

The certainty and promptitude with which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters conquer the most obstinate cases of malarial disease, and the complete protection which they afford the system against the miasmatic poison which impregnates the air of low-lying, marshy localities, stamp them as the foremost of American antiperiodics. Wherever on this continent fever and ague is a regular visitant—in the bottom lands of the South, the new clearings and mining districts of the West, and in all localities in the Eastern and Middle States where malaria prevails, the Bitters are recognized as the only true specific for this disease, and its most reliable preventive. They are, moreover, a safe and agreeable as well as a certain remedy, and on this account are immeasurably superior to the preparations of quinine, arsenic, bismuth and other mineral poisons mistakenly administered as curatives for maladies caused by miasma, and which if persisted in work irreparable injury to the constitution.

Unfortunately, fever and ague, and the other febrile complaints generated by miasma, are not the only evils which result from it. A great variety of disorders are superinduced by the irritation which it causes. Among these are neuralgia, rheumatism, gout, periodical headache, palpitation, painful affections of the spleen, and various derangements of the stomach. When traceable to malaria, the above affections are apt to assume, like the disease which originated them, an intermittent type; that is to say they recur at regular intervals. Hostetter's Bitters, however, obviates them all, by banishing the miasmatic virus from the system.

THE WARREN & CLOUGH COMBINATION ORGAN.

New and Wonderful Invention.

The newly invented SCRIBNER PATENT "QUALIFYING TUBES." (Secured by letters patent in the United States, England and Canada.) An invention having a MOST IMPORTANT BEARING on the future reputation of Reed Instruments. By means of which the quantity or VOLUME of tone is VERY LARGELY INCREASED, and the QUALITY of tone rendered equal to that of the best Pipe Organs of the same capacity—thus furnishing all the desirable characteristics of the large Church Pipe Organ, in a case the size of an ordinary Cabinet or Parlor Organ, and at the moderate price of Reed Organs. By means of this invention, an Organ containing two sets of reeds becomes equal in volume and power, and VASTLY SUPERIOR IN QUALITY AND BRILLIANCY OF TONE to an ordinary Reed Organ of six or eight sets of reeds. One of the crowning features of this invention is the peculiar facility with which it adapts the tone of the Instrument to ACCOMPANY THE VOICE IN SINGING, the effect upon both singer and listener being charming beyond description. This ingenious invention consists in the construction and application of tubes of wood or metal, placed so as to operate in connection with the reeds, each tube having an opening on the upper side at the rear end, through which the air, subsequently passing through the reed, enters, and through which the sound produced by the vibration of the reed escapes. The tubes inclosing the reeds of the treble are provided with adjustable valves or slides, over the mouth opening, by means of which the tubes may be tuned in unison with reeds, to produce a flute-like tone, such as found heretofore only in pipe Organs.

Can be seen and heard on the corner of Sixth and I streets.

in every department, and our prices as low as any house in the State for the same class of goods. We handle none but what we know to be FIRST-CLASS ARTICLES, and always keep the latest improved Machines, which are known to be good and preferable to the older styles.

MOWERS!

We introduce to the Farmers of the Pacific Coast, for the season of 1875, the celebrated

"Meadow King" Mower.

This Machine we have selected from among some twenty-five machines inspected personally by our Manager last Fall throughout the Eastern States, and we find it to possess the great features most needed in California and Nevada, viz., Simplicity, Strength and Durability.

While it possesses all the good features of the "Buckeye," it has some others that make it far superior; and we feel confident in introducing it that we will meet the want of all Farmers for the BEST MACHINE for the least money. It is not a new and untried machine, but one which has stood high throughout the East for the last seven years. ☞ Send for special circular.

HEADERS!

We shall have for 1875 the Genuine Haines' Header.
